

PIVOTing Webinar

Workshop to prepare your
Workplace for the new normal

What we know

1. Everyone is impacted by this in some way
2. Where is a challenging balance between economic destination and human safety that no one really knows the answer to
3. We as business leaders have a complicated set of issue to address but we still need to lead

Questions like these are flooding your inbox.. is the the to create your plan with the understanding that all plans can change.

You can get through almost anything with a bit of grit and grind and a good plan and we're here to help you take action.

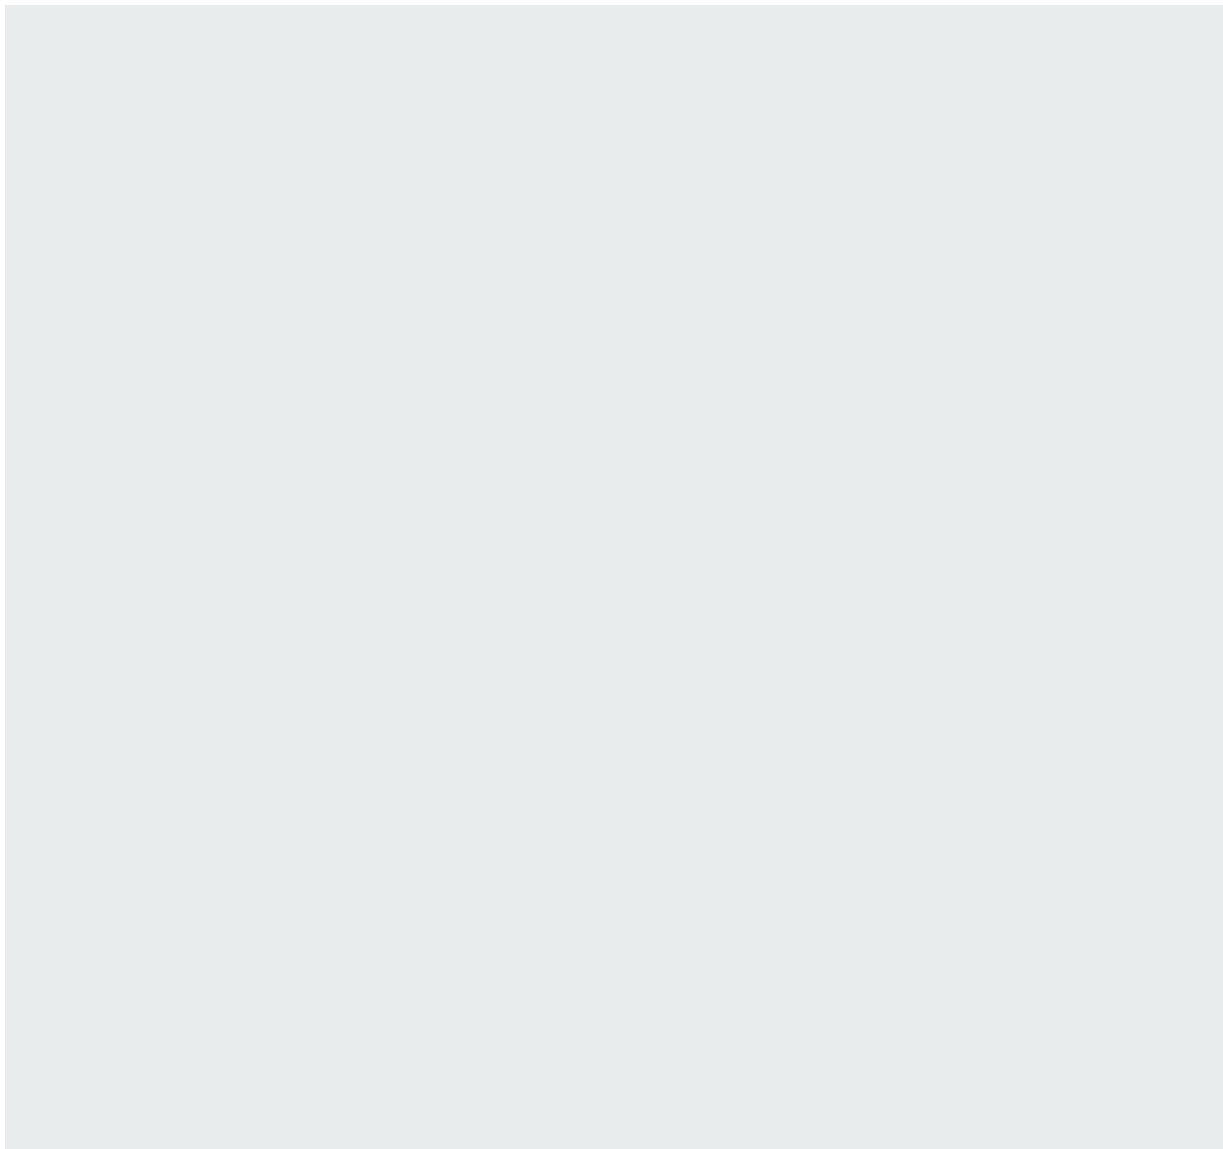

At the end of this workshop, you'll have a game plan of action to lead your business through these challenging times.

CREATE YOUR ACTION PLAN

Your physical space

What actions do you need to take in your physical space to prepare yourself to open?

Financial Decisions

What financial decision do you need to prepare for?

People Decisions

What people decision do you need to prepare for?

Technology Decisions

What is currently in place that will need to be modified if you have both remote and on premise workers? Has remote productivity suffered? Security concerns? Communication issues?

How often do you need to meet? Who needs to be in the room to help make decisions and move things forward?

In the middle of chaos, we must focus on what we can control: our ATTITUDE, our OUTLOOK and our ACTIONS.
